

I am writing regarding challenges to Indiana Telephone Privacy Act. I simply want to say that companies with whom I already do business can contact me via mail or email, there is no need for them to be able to call me at all hours of the day. Since I have added my telephone number to Indiana's list, I can actually sit through an evening at home with my family and not be interrupted by unwanted and completely unnecessary telephone calls. I am sure that there are many more individuals like me who will fail to send you comments, so on their behalf and my own, I am asking that you deny the banks' petition to be able to contact me via telephone in violation of Indiana's Telephone Privacy Act.

Sincerely, Danica L. Eyler
